CRUEL CHILEAN BANDITS.

Members of Two Prominent Families Horribly Maltreated by Desperadoes.

The Business of Smuggling Chinamen Into Uncle Sam's Eastern Territory.

Proposal to Build Another Bridge Across the Mississippi at St. Louis.

PANAMA, Aug. 12.—An account of the atrocities in Chile, by the shooting, robbing and brutal treatment by bandits of two prominent families, have been received here as follows: Don Jose Miguel, Velasco, of Cotapos, and family, while en route to Santiago, stopped at Don Juan Del Peral's house, about 7:30 on Saturday evening. Valesco, in company with the members of his family, was in a room which opens on to the corridor of the house when a number of voices were heard. Velasco unsuspiciously opened the door, when he was shot in the cheek, the ball lodging in his brain and he fell mortally wounded. Velasco was then pounced on by one of the bandits, who bound his arms and after robbing him of his money and jewels took him to other bandits, who clubbed the dying man on the head with the butt ends of their carbines. Mrs. Velasco seized her two children and took refuge in an adjoining room, while her two daughters fled into the yard. The bandits quickly traced Mrs. Velasco and after maltreating her, bound her hand and foot and tore out her earrings and also stripped her of other jewelry, threatening to kill her if she made the slightest noise. The others pursued Miss Sara Velasco, firing at her as she went across the yard with the two children. She sought refuge near the kitchen, where the servant had already fled, but directly she was traced and she too was bound hand and foot and maltreated. The butler, who started to assist his master, fell to the ground insensible and, being dragged to where Velasco lay dead, was thrown across his body. Don Anders Harades hearing the shot, accompanied by a son, started for the scene, but had not gone far before he was fired upon by some of the bandits, who had set a guard, and he fell wounded in the thigh. After plundering the house the bandits left and those who succeeded in hiding from them came out and unbound the victims. The gang numbered twenty-three and their faces were covered with handkerchiefs and they were far from being of the vulgar class. About the same time of the evening three men asked to be allowed to remain for the night at the house of Don Jose Mercedes Leal, at Robleria. In the middle of the night they arose, forced an entrance to the host's bedroom, and stabbed him and his wife to death. A ten year old son escaped and later identified two men who have been arrested on suspicion of complicity.

Another Mississippi Bridge.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 12.—The proposal to build a third bridge across the Mississippi river at St. Louis, which has been before the public for several years, has taken definite shape, and local and Cincinnati capitalists are now figuring on the work. The new bridge is to be south of the Eads bridge, and according to present plans will cost about $6,000,000. The enormous business done by the railroads with St. Louis is shown by the fact that the Eads Bridge Company is now handling more business and tonnage than prior to the opening of the bridge to the north of the city, and it is this fact that has prompted the revival of a project supposed to have been dead for years. The necessary powers to construct this third bridge were obtained from Congress before the second bridge was as much as contemplated.

Fought Like Devils.

PANAMA, Aug. 12.—Later reports from Honduras contradict the former advices as to the success of the revolution. The revolutionists are said to have been totally routed in a decisive battle at Dandi. The battle was won for the Government by the Indians who stripped to the waist and fought like demons. The revolutionists lost 300 killed and 600 or 700 wounded. Among the killed were Generals Arins Daville and Vasquez, who were executed by the victors. General Benulla has fled to Nicaragua.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—In view of the arrest of U. S. Consul Ryder, of Copenhagen, the Secretary of State has directed Clark Carr, Minister to Denmark, to proceed at once to Copenhagen and assume charge there. Carr is now at his home at Galesburg, Ill., on leave of absence.

Heavy Rain Interferes With the Sports—Races This Afternoon.

VANCOUVER, Aug. 12.—It has been raining heavily all day, but is clearing up now. It was decided at one time to postpone the races for to-day, but they will come off this afternoon, rain or shine.

Major Dupont and Hon. J. H. Turner are in the city to-day on business.

SMUGGLING CHINESE.

Price Paid in the East for Underground Transportation.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Treasury Agent Aldnew Soehugen returned from Detroit this morning, where he has been for several days investigating frauds committed in smuggling Chinese across the Canadian border. He says there is a large gang at work aiding the Celestials in getting into the United States. The smugglers are refugees and outlaws from the United States. They know every foot of ground, and despite the vigilance of 60 inspectors, who are now patrolling the territory, many Chinese succeed in crossing. The smugglers are paid $100 for each pigtail. Two carloads of foreigners arrive twice a week from Manitoba, where they collect after coming from British Columbia, and are landed at various points on the border. The smugglers are located at Windsor. They play all sorts of tricks on the heathens, and several days ago landed a number of them on an island which belongs to Canada and abandoned them.

THE RIVERS INLET MURDER.

Inquest at Westminster—The Offal Question Celebration Programme.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Aug. 12.—The inquest into the case of the death of at Rivers Inlet is progressing before Coroner Pittendrigh. John Thomas Cole testified that he saw Sing Kee, the prisoner arrested charged with the murder, point a rifle out of the window at a group of Chinamen and a few minutes afterwards saw Lem Chow lying dead. This was the only point directly bearing upon the shooting that was adduced. The evidence of two other witnesses was about the escape of Sing Kee and his subsequent arrest.

The following programme has been decided upon for the exhibition celebration in September:

Wednesday, Sept. 21—9 a.m., Pythian and societies procession and official opening; 1 to 6 p.m, Pythian prize drill competition for $1200. Evening, grand illumination and Pythian sword drill by electric light, at Queen's park.

Thursday, Sept. 22—9:30 to 12 noon, aquatic sports and Indian canoe races; 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., Association foot ball; 1 to 2:30 p.m., junior lacrosse match; 2:30 p.m., championship lacrosse match, Westminster vs. Victoria. Evening, band concert at Queen's park.

Friday, Sept. 23—9 a.m. to 12 noon, bicycle races and field sports; 1 to 5 p.m., horse racing; prizes, $1600; 2 p.m., baseball match. Evening, ball.

The question of the disposal of fish offal by the salmon canneries, has assumed another perplexing aspect. Mr. McNab, fisheries inspector, received word from the Fisheries Department that the Department of Justice had decided that the provision for cribbing of offal does not apply to rivers, and, therefore, it is illegal to deposit offal in cribs on the Fraser river. As a matter of course the cannerymen are indignant.

The district financial meeting of the Methodist Church adjourned yesterday. The nine domestic, or home missions, propose to raise for ministerial support $2305, and grants to the amount of $5044 were asked from the Missionary Society. This would bring the salaries of ordained married men, exclusive of removals, up to $1000 and probationers to $550, for the year. Of the grants requested the whole will not be paid, but such percentage as the state of the Mission fund will permit, say 70 per cent. The Mission to the Indian tribes of the Fraser valley has now two missionaries, towards whose support the members pay $100, and the $1655 is asked from the Society; $1110 was requested for the Chinese Mission in Westminster, and $1000 for that in Vancouver, the staff at each place consisting of one missionary and two lady teachers.

ALBERNI.

On Sunday evening the 13th ulto., this district was invaded by a gang of about 50 Chinese from Union mines, Comox, on their way th China creek to wash for gold. Each one was laden, Creel-fashion, with personal effects. They came trooping along Indian file, half running, half walking, and stooping under their heavy burdens; and encamped near the wharf. As might be expected they quietly bought up all the rice in stock at the stores. Certain parties have accused them of pilfering private property that lay near their encampment. Such complaints seem to be justified by the fact that on two occasions they were caught in the act of carrying off a dog and fishing net. The next gang of Chinamen passing through this locality will be strictly watched.

A small but enterprising company of settlers has decided to start a portable sawmill. As it can be taken where suitable trees are located, the great expense of conveying trees over ground without roads is thus avoided. The engine for the mill has recently arrived and is an object of curiosity. It is hoped the venture will prove profitable to the originators and be of great advantage to all in Alberni district who need lumber to finish houses and other buildings left uncompleted owing to the heavy freight on lumber from Victoria. It is a fact to be regretted, that during the last twelve months Alberni has been supplied with large quantities of prepared lumber from Victoria mills. This "carrying of coal to Newcastle," will cease, as soon as two or three proposed sawmills are put in operation in this heavily wooded and now somewhat populous district of the West Coast.

Scoring Carnegie.

GLASGOW, Aug. 11.—The Glasgow Trades Council, with only one dissenting member, passed a resolution yesterday, declaring that while placing Carnegie's name upon the roll of fame with those of Judas Iscariot and James Cary, we feel constrained to tender him our thanks for providing the world with a most powerful object lesson in regard to the relations of capital and labor. The resolution further deprecated the action of the Ayr municipal authorities in conferring the freedom of the city upon Mr. Carnegie, and suggested that James Keir Hardie, the recently elected member of Parliament for the south division of West Ham, use the utmost exertions to refund the one hundred pounds which Mr. Carnegie contributed for his election expenses.

The Cholera.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 12.—Trebizonde, in Asia Minor, has 1000 persons who were in quarantine on account of cholera, and who attempted to escape from a pen in which they were confined. Turkish troops were ordered out, and in endeavoring to force the prisoners back, fired into the crowd, killing 83 and wounding 23.

WANT BETTER FIRE PROTECTION

The People of the Resident Portions of the City Talking the Matter Over.

The residents of Spring Ridge have, since last Sunday's fire, been talking a great deal of the need of fire protection for that portion of the city. The nearest fire hall is a couple of miles distance from them and they think there is little chance of the firemen saving their property, if a blaze should get a good start.

The residents of Victoria West are in an even worse condition, while the Work estate is just as bad.

The general opinion expressed is that there should be a fire hall in Spring Ridge, Work estate Victoria West and James Bay with a couple of men, an engine of some kind and a team of horses.

The old fire hall on Kingston street, James Bay, although in a somewhat dilapidated condition, could be used for housing the engine intended for the protection of James Bay ward. There is accommodation in the hall for a team of horses and a couple of men. The James Bay people are talking a good deal at present about the almost defenceless position they are in as regards fire, and there is a strong sentiment in favor of establishing a station at the Kingston street hall. At present that building is simply falling into ruin.

ENERGETIC MEASURES.

The N. E. T. & L. Company Take Further Steps to Hasten Resumption of Work.

A meeting of the directors of the tramway company was held this morning at 11 to adjust certain matters relating to the lighting department. So far as could be learned the two plants of the tramway and lighting departments will be operated under the same roof and much in the same relative positions as formerly. As in the case of the tramway plant several important additions and improvements will be made to the lighting plant so as to make it equal to any lighting plant on the coast. The plans submitted by Mr. Teague for the new power house were accepted and work will begin at once.

The plans show a very complete establishment in which every foot of available space has been skilfully utilized to the best advantage. The heavy machinery, as formerly, will all be on the ground floor, the offices, repairing room, armature department and the like upstairs. The structure is to be of brick, stone, iron, asbestos and cement, and as nearly fireproof as modern science can make it. One of the innovations will be a great air shaft, 80 feet in height and eight feet wide to carry off all the hot and foul air from the engine and dynamo rooms, and keep them cool and well supplied with pure air. In addition to the fireproof qualities of the building the company will thoroughly equip every floor and department, as they were in the old building, with an outfit of hose and hydrants, so that any future fire will have to make great haste to get ahead of the workmen.

Several of the directors of the company and the insurance representatives met at the site of the power house this afternoon respecting an adjustment of the losses. The debris had been all cleared away and the engines, belt wheels and dynamos stand upon the charred pedestals apparently not much the worse for their severe scorching. Much of the machinery can be used again and when cleaned up and oiled it will be hard to tell that it has been through the fire. The result of the conference between the directors and insurance people could not be ascertained before going to press.

It is understood a large quantity of new electrical machinery is already on the way for the N.E. & L. Co., from Montreal and should reach here next week. The machinery will be fitted up while the walls are being built and the roof put on, so that everything will be ready for operation as soon as the building is finished.

THE VOTE IS TAKEN.

The Salisbury Government Defeated by a Majority of 40—Lively Scenes.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The House was packed when Parliament assembled this afternoon. Every seat was taken, and crowds were standing on the floor and in the gangways. When Right Hon. Mr. Gladstone entered he was cheered enthusiastically. Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, who wore an orchid in addition to his usual garb, was also cheered as he went to his seat, and more or less applause greeted each notable from his partisans.

Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain rose to speak on the motion of "no confidence."

Mr. Alpheus C. Morton, Liberal, of Peterboro, objected to Mr. Chamberlain being allowed to speak on the ground that he had only spoken the previous evening.

The Speaker overruled the objection, whereupon Mr. Chamberlain proceeded with his remarks. He bitterly commented on the tactics employed to prevent him from speaking, and said that it was an early sample of the petty and malignant treatment to be meted out to the Liberal-Unionists. Mr. Gladstone had been civilly answered; the Irish members were treated in a similar manner, but the remarks by the Unionists were regarded as irrelevant and impudent. After this, Mr. Chamberlain launched out against the incoming government, and said that the policy and composition of the incoming government were unknown. Foreign troubles were looming up in Italy and Egypt, and if ever a foreign policy was needed that would command the respect of the world, it was now. He trusted that Lord Rosebery would be called to the Foreign Office. The people trusted Lord Rosebery because his views were utterly opposed to the views of Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Morley. The Liberal declarations, Mr. Chamberlain continued, were irreconcilable with the Irish demands. What, therefore, was the prospect for the new government if the Irish Nationalists adhered to their repeated declarations and if the Liberals kept faith with the English people? In such a case the coming government would not last a single day. The efforts of those about to take office would result in inevitable failure.

Mr. G. E. McCartney, Conservative, of South Antrim, followed with a strong denunciation of Home Rule. During his address Mr. McCartney said that the honorable gentleman from Dublin (Mr. W. Field) wanted to wade in Protestant blood. This statement was received with loud cries of "Oh! Oh!" from the Irish benches, and Mr. McCartney subsequently withdrew it and apologized.

Mr. S. Wood, Gladstonian, for the Ince division of Lancashire, Mr. J. W. Bons, Gladstonian, for the St. George's division of Tower Hamlets, and other Gladstonians criticized Mr. Chamberlain.

Sir Henry James, Liberal Unionist, for the Lanes division of Bury, defended the Government in favoring a protracted debate, and cited the four day's debate in the House in 1841. He called upon Mr. Gladstone to confirm the applicability of the precedent, but Mr. Gladstone refused to sanction the comparison, remarking dryly: "The cases are totally dissimilar."

The House showed symptoms of restiveness during Sir Henry James' speech, and when the Right Hon. Henry Chaplin, President of the Board of Agriculture, and Conservative member for the Seaforth division of Lincolnshire, arose to defend the Government he was received with continued cries of "divide" and general confusion in the Opposition benches. Mr. Chaplin proceeded undismayed, however, to attack the Opposition for its aimless and undefined policy. He was frequently interrupted, and sat down amid renewed calls for a division, laughter from the Opposition benches and faint cheers from the Ministerialists. A glass of whiskey had been sent to Mr. Chaplin during his speech, as if to suggest that he might abbreviate it, and upon resuming his seat he drank it. Meantime the calls for a division swelled to a chorus, and were not stilled until the declaration came that the vote, "no confidence," was at hand.

In the division the Parnellites and anti-Parnellites fell in together behind Mr. Gladstone. When the members re-entered the House, ironical cheers were given for Mr. Balfour. Mr. Gladstone was almost the last to come back. When he appeared the Nationalists arose, waved their hats and cheered. It was then announced that the vote for the amendment was 350; against the amendment, 310; majority for the amendment, 40. The Liberals rose, waving their hats, turned to Mr. Gladstone and cheered for several minutes. The old man flushed slightly during the ovation, but otherwise was apparently unmoved. As the cheering abated, Mr. Balfour, amid cries of "coercion," and cheering and "booing," and then counter-cheering, moved the adjournment of the House.

The scene in the House of Commons during the final debate and decisive vote on the address has not been equalled in interesting and exciting features since the Home Rule debate in 1886, when Mr. Gladstone, now victorious, was overthrown. Every inch of available space on the floor was occupied, and some of the members had to find seats in the gallery, and even to speak from these elevated and distant positions. Every English member was present, and the total number of absentees was only 13. The visitors who crowded the outsiders' galleries were well repaid for their attendance by witnessing one of the peaceful revolutions by which England overthrows one set of rulers and sets up another.

Though Herbert Gladstone declares that his father has fully recovered his health, and that the stories of his weakness are the inventions of malicious political enemies, and though the British Medical Journal, on the authority of Sir Andrew Clarke, states that Mr. Gladstone is sound in body and mind, and able to work with any man of his age, that aged statesman looked pale and distressed to-day and sank into his seat as though exhausted. He was nervous and irritable. The light from the opposite windows annoyed him, his eyes being still weak from the effects of the injury inflicted by his female assailant at Chester. At a signal the attendants closed the windows and drew the curtains.

During most of the debate Mr. Gladstone listened with his eyes closed, keeping his hand to his ear in token of attention to what was being said. Mr. Chamberlain never came so near losing control of himself in his rage to-day at the tactics employed by Tim Healy to prevent him delivering the speech. He heaped denunciations upon Healy's head, who smiled sardonically during most of the diatribe; but when Mr. Chamberlain declared that Healy was a person who would insult any man, and then pausing, added, with offensive emphasis, "or any woman," the face of the Irish member underwent a sudden change of appearance and became livid with suppressed rage. The Tories yelled with delight at Mr. Chamberlain's home thrust, and kept up the shouting until they were hoarse. After Mr. Chamberlain's speech, he and Lord Randolph Churchill were seen chatting together in the lobby, the first time they have been known to converse for years. The Tories were plainly chagrinned at their failure to extort replies from the Liberals. The latter were content to do very little talking, and to rely upon their votes.

A TART LETTER.

Health Inspector Huntly of Vancouver Talks Back to Dr. Davie.

The following letter appears in yesterday's issue of the Vancouver Telegram:—

SIR,—At last night's special meeting of our city council, after the business for which said meeting was called had been disposed of, Dr. J. C. Davie, the provincial health officer, made a few remarks bearing upon the instructions given by him to Municipal Health Officers Drs. McGuigan and Wilson Herald regarding the removal of the smallpox patients at Hastings and Moodyville to Deadman's Island, and towards the conclusion of those remarks he saw fit to refer to my having served him, Dr. McGuigan, with a notice, under our Public Health By-law, that any person bringing any person afflicted with smallpox into this city would be proceeded against under said by-law, and while commenting on the fact of having been so served, he read a copy of a reply he had sent me, which reads as follows:

Mr. Jos. Huntly, Health Inspector, etc.:

SIR,—In reference to your communication of even date to me, I am afraid you mistake our relative positions. As Provincial Health Officer it is for you to carry out any instructions I may issue to you—certainly not for me to take any orders from you.

I am, sir, yours very truly,
J. C. DAVIE, M.D.,
Prov. Health Officer.

Now, Sir, my object in thus addressing you is to set at rest in the mind of Dr. Davie any doubt that might arise as to our relative positions in the matter at issue when he penned the above reply. In the first place, I did not forget (for I did not even stop to think of such a thing) our relative positions, for, as a matter of fact, they bear no relation whatever to each other, he being an appointee of the Provincial Government and I being an appointee of the council of this city, each of us having separate and distinct duties to perform.

In the next place, he asserts that it is my duty to carry out any instructions he may see fit to give me. This assertion cannot be upheld by him, as I deny his right to issue any instructions to me as an official of this city.

In the third place, he claims that it certainly is not his place to take orders from me. Perhaps this contention of his would hold good in the general run of business, but when Dr. Davie, or any other person, sees fit to bring or cause to be brought into this city persons suffering from a contagious or infectious disease, then I, as a sworn officer of this corporation, whose main duty it is to protect the health of our citizens by all the means at my control, say that Dr. Davie or any other person so offending or urging or instructing others to so offend against our public health by-law, will have to take orders from me while I hold the office I do, or suffer the consequence for disobeying any such orders given.

J. HUNTLY,
Health Inspector.

Vancouver, B C.

The notice which Mr. Huntly mentions as having been served on Dr. Davie and Dr. McGuigan, and in reply to which Dr. Davie's note was written, is as follows:

John C. Davie, Esq., Provincial Health Officer:

SIR,—You are hereby required to take notice that no person suffering from smallpox, or who has been in contact with the said disease, will be allowed to come into the city of Vancouver, and any person bringing any person suffering from the said disease into the city will be proceeded against under the provisions of the Public Health By-Law of the city of Vancouver. You will therefore please be governed accordingly. Yours respectfully,

J. HUNTLY,
Health Inspector, City of Vancouver.

THE CRYOLITE FLEET.

Fears That the Vessels Are Fastened Among Icebergs.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.—Much anxiety is felt in shipping circles here regarding the fate of the fleet of sailing vessels which ply between here and Ivigtut, Greenland, in the cryolite trade. For several years the vessels have made two and three voyages during the summer, often returning from the first trip as early as Decoration Day. The steamer Fox, a vessel famous for her voyages to the far north, and which during the summer plies between Greenland and Copenhagen, reports that the barks Fluorine, Ivigtut, Platina and Salina were loading at Ivigtut for Philadelphia, and are believed to have sailed in the latter part of June for their destinations. While it is not known whether or not the vessels have been caught in the ice, the delay in arriving has caused some uneasiness. It is known that more ice, field and bergs, has been seen this year off the Newfoundland coast than ever before, and the Greenland coast must be almost impenetrable for sailing vessels. Perhaps the vessels are still lying at Ivigtut awaiting a chance to see clear water before leaving their anchorage.

THE ACTIVE PRINCIPLE OF DAVIEISM.

Premier Davie's recent actions and letters make plain his unfitness for the office he holds. His hankering for the power of a dictator is not a characteristic that can commend itself to the minds of free and enlightened people; neither is his unseemly readiness to take revenge on political opponents by any and every means within his reach, such as he has displayed in his treatment of the civic authorities. Nor is it pleasant to observe the efforts of any politician to make political capital for himself out of a public affliction. But this smallpox episode has resulted in showing that Mr. Davie is an unsafe guide in legislation as well as a dangerous leader of the administration. His own letters show that his tinkering with the Municipal Act has the effect of increasing the difficulties of municipal governments. Last session he insisted on hedging around the city councils with all sorts of hampering provisions, on the plea of safeguarding the civic purse. Now he insists on the Victoria City Council breaking through those provisions, and goes so far as to threaten seizure of the city's property if his ukase is not promptly obeyed. The city had to pay $4500 for the cost of a royal commission appointed by Mr. Davie to look into just such irregularities on the part of past councils as Mr. Davie insists on the present council committing. And his present insistence is in the face of enactments which Mr. Davie himself introduced for the express purpose of preventing such irregularities. Whether in legislation or administration, the autocrat's will is his guide; he cares for neither justice nor consistency. It is easy to see that such a man is likely to do extensive injury to the public interest, for which he has no regard so long as his own ends are served.

VOTED INTO POWER.

The big debate and the vote in the new House of Commons are over, and the Salisbury Government is defeated by a majority of 40 on the "no confidence" motion. Very few of the members were absent, those who were away being evenly divided between the two parties. At this distance it looks as though the Government might better have left office when the result of the elections became known, instead of waiting to be formally kicked out. If it had any hope of drawing out Mr. Gladstone on his Home Rule policy, or of causing a division among his followers, that hope has been disappointed. The Home Rule ranks remain firm; the Opposition paid comparatively little attention to the debate, but awaited the result of the vote with calm confidence. Now there can no longer be any excuse for delaying the change of Government. The only element of uncertainty in the situation at present is Mr. Gladstone's physical condition. If his health and strength do not fail him there is apparently nothing in the political conditions to prevent him carrying out his programme. The House of Lords is undoubtedly an obstacle, but it is an obstacle that can be overcome. Unfortunately it cannot be confidently expected that Mr. Gladstone will remain much longer fit for the great labor which his resumption of the premiership must entail. The weight of years is evidently telling on him, and even his wonderful physique cannot for many years longer withstand the assaults of old age. What will come if Mr. Gladstone dies before his work is completed? There must then inevitably be a setback to the cause which he has brought to the verge of triumph. No man in the Liberal ranks is fitted to step into his place and at once carry on his work without some break in its progress. That the stoppage would be only temporary, however, there is strong reason to believe; the cause being just and good, it must ultimately be carried on to success in some leader's hands. The millions who admire the Grand Old Man will earnestly hope that he may live to secure this success himself, but they will not despair even if his strength should not prove sufficient.

AUSTRALIAN DUTIES.

The colony of Victoria, Australia, has supplied the American Democrats with a campaign weapon and somewhat taken the Republicans aback by adopting in a small degree the McKinley idea. Recent tariff changes there increase the duty on pine lumber $6.25 per 1000 feet and raise the duty on canned fruit to six cents per pound, or about 15 cents per tin. These duties fall heavily on two articles which the Pacific coast States supply to the Victorian market, the tax on fruit being specially obnoxious to the Californians, who had built up a nice trade in canned fruit, and the lumber duty hitting Oregon and Washington exporters. There seems to be an idea in the minds of many of the Americans that this tariff change was made in retaliation for the high duty placed on Australian wool by the McKinley tariff. Some of our own people seem to entertain the same idea, and also have a hazy impression that the Victorian duties are discriminatory. There does not appear to be good foundation for either idea. The Victorians have apparently increased their duties for a purely protectionist purpose; they want to "protect home industries" from competition with any and every country. The duty on pine lumber will apply to the Canadian exporter of pine as well as the American. We have no means of knowing whether fir lumber is exempted, but unless it is British Columbia will be affected by the duty the same as Oregon and Washington. The fruit duty does not interest us at present, for the reason that we send no canned fruit to Victoria; but if we did our product would be excluded as that of California is now. Fruit raising and canning is a growing industry in Victoria, and the duty is put on for the purpose of "protecting" it. It so happens that California is chiefly hurt by the duty, but we believe this is only an incident and not the result of deliberate retaliation. Nor is it at all likely that Victoria, or any of the other Australian colonies will undertake to discriminate in favor of any line of Canadian products, unless a quid pro quo is given. At present Australian wool comes into Canada free of duty, and wool is about the only article we import from Australia. It is, therefore, hard to see what inducement we can hold out for discrimination in favor of the Australians.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Democrats have been using Whitelaw Reid's fight with the Typographical Union as an argument to convince the workingmen that he should not be elected Vice-President. The Republicans have in turn made the discovery that the McLean Coal Company, of which Mr. Stevenson is president, will not employ union miners. The workingmen are thus placed in the position of finding that neither Codlin nor Short is their friend, and it would appear that they must fall in with either the People's Party or the Prohibitionists.

Many of the American papers are poking fun at Philadelphia on account of the raising of coal prices in that city by the Reading "combine." It is stated that the organizers of the combine distinctly promised there would be no increase in prices for that city, whereupon the Philadelphia people and press gave their support to the scheme. Now the combine has raised its prices in the city, the increases ranging from 65 cents to $1.30 per ton, according to grade, and the Philadelphians are correspondingly mad. They must have been possessed of Quaker-like simplicity if they believed that the combination would not exercise the power given it by its monopoly of the coal supply.

Judging from an advertisement in the British Columbia Gazette, the Davie Government has decided to go out of the artesian well-boring business. All the Government plant on the Thompson river, near Kamloops, including two engines and boilers, and drills and tools in quantity to fill a railway car, is offered for sale by tender. The attempt to find water was a failure, but to what cause the failure should be attributed is not so clear. It may have been due to the fact that there was no water where the bores were put down, or to the inefficiency of the work done. The importance of determining whether the wild lands of the interior can be irrigated, however, is as great as ever, and it is the duty of the Government to find the answer.

Gazette Notices.

The Exchequer Court of Canada will sit in Victoria on Thursday, 29th Sept., instead of 1st Sept.

In addition to the bounty of $5 per head for every wolf or panther killed in a settled district, the sum of $2.50 will be paid for every coyote killed in settled district, on the certificate of a justice of the peace that such animal was killed in a settlement, and that the head was produced to and destroyed by him.

The following additional mining recording division in West Kootenay has been established:—Illecillewaet—Alexander Carlisle McArthur, J.P., Recorder—to comprise all the land situated on the Illecillewaet river and Fish creek and all the streams flowing with either of the said streams.

Geo. H. Barnard, barrister, Victoria, has been appointed a notary public, and Wm. Holland Keary, of New Westminster, a justice of the peace.

Tenders are invited for the government artesian well-boring plant.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

IS IT true that a variation has been made in the contract for sewerage on some portions of the system without the consent and knowledge of the Council? I have been informed that on Cook street the sewer has been made with concrete instead of brick and concrete. I am not expert enough to decide whether this is cheaper or less effective than the contract calls for—possibly it may be better and more expensive—but certainly no important change should be made unless ordered by the corporation. This is not intended as a complaint against the contractor, because there may be reasonable explanation on his part for the change, but only to call public attention to the fact that vigilant oversight is required over all the civic departments. The criticism of the TIMES upon Mr. McBean has been solely directed towards the foreign labor he employs, rather than upon the character of the work accomplished. In this matter, as in all public affairs, I desire to "nothing extenuate, nor set down aught in malice."

How quickly luxuries becomes conveniences and conveniences become necessities. The citizens of Victoria had got along very well without tramways for well-nigh 30 years, but directly the tram-cars ran immediately everybody began to find how necessary they were to their happiness and comfort. The conversation upon the streets has changed from epidemics to tram-cars and the probability of the latter running again. I suppose it is an "ill wind that blows nobody any good," and probably the hackmen are reaping a greater harvest than they otherwise would. All the same, I feel great sympathy with the large number of motorneers and collectors employed by the tramway company, and sincerely hope that very speedily they may be employed again.

I have often wondered why cycling is not more popular in Victoria. Of course there are a great number who indulge in the sport, but as a real convenience the tricycle and bicycle might be more largely employed as a means of locomotion. A scientist in England a few years back declared that in his opinion it was only a question of time when the trycicle urged by electricity would become the favorite method of traveling. No doubt the cost of the article is a deterrent to many, the £10 machine of the old country swells into $125 in Victoria, duty, freight and profit being chargeable with the difference. To those who do not object to the exhilarating risk of bruised limbs and broken bones, bicycling is the easiest and most speedy, but to those who have passed the friskiness of youth I recommend the tricycle.

Still another testimony to the value of the TIMES. A gentleman of high repute in the medical world, lately arrived in this city, assured me yesterday that there was no doubt of the superiority of the TIMES in management, matter and general conduct of the paper. "At the first," said he, "I thought one of morning papers more enterprising and energetic, but lately—" here the speaker's voice assumed a sarcastic intonation impossible to describe. A real estate broker also told me that he had received more direct good from his advertisements in the TIMES than any other, and he continued, this is reasonable, because it is more read than any other. "True for you, Mr. B——," I said, "but even for you, the editor will not let me trespass upon advertising etiquette." QUIZ.

Premier Dibbs.

Sir George Dibbs, Premier of New South Wales, is not coming to Vancouver and Victoria as was expected. Mr. Elworthy, secretary of the Board of Trade, received the following dispatch from him this morning, dated Pearl River, Ont., Aug. 11:—"Present intention is to make San Francisco via Mission Junction, for steamer leaving San Francisco midday on the 19th, as it is imperative that I return to Australia by that steamer, and fearing uncertainty of making connections."

Garden Party.

There will be a gay time at the Victoria Gardens to-morrow evening. The beautiful grounds will be lighted up with Oriental lanterns and Prof. Finn's City Band will provide music for a promenade concert, and also for dancing in the Gardens hall. Mrs. Davies will supply refreshments, and has made every arrangement so that so those who visit the Gardens will be sure to have a pleasant time. This garden party and open-air promenade concert will undoubtedly prove a more than ordinary attraction to a spot worthy a visit on a summer's night.

The Quarantine.

Just one month ago to-day the Puget Sound Board of Health declared a quarantine against Victoria. They have carried it out strictly and until yesterday not one of the officers of the steamer North Pacific, which has been running here daily, has been allowed to land. Yesterday the purser was allowed to come up town and enter and clear the boat. The members of the Board of Health have returned to Port Townsend from the convention at Olympia and it is expected that they will take immediate action regarding the quarantine. It is now two weeks since there was a new case.

The Caucasian and the Mongol.

To-day, while the rain was descending and filling the pools and making everybody feel blue, a little Chinaman tottering under a large basket of laundried clothes, which he carried on his shoulders and which made him by contrast look even smaller than he was, made his way along the edge of the Government street sidewalk. A rough looking dray driver going in the same direction with his wagon and team hailed the Chinaman, asked where he was going and offered to transport him thither free of charge. The celestial joyfully accepted the unexpected offer, and was wearing a smile of blissful content ornamented at the corner with little rills of water which trickled through his hat and down his sallow cheeks.

J. N. Muir and the Church.

The following is the official finding of the Grand Assembly in the Muir case: President Forrest, on behalf of the judicial committee, appointed by the General Assembly, reported the following recommendation regarding the appeal of J. N. Muir against the decision of the Presbytery of Columbia of March 10th, 1892:

"Sustain the appeal, inasmuch as notwithstanding the vexatious conduct of Mr. Muir, the Presbytery in summarily suspending him sine die, dealt with undue severity. At the same time express sympathy with the Presbytery in the unusually difficult circumstances of the case, and declare the conduct of Mr. Muir highly censurable; notwithstanding, remove the suspension now resting on him, and in the interests of peace, instruct the session to give him a letter of demission, that he may seek admission to another congregation, and enjoin Mr. Muir henceforth to seek earnestly to live peaceably with all men."

Weekly Dances.

The regular weekly socials at Omineca hall, Oriental alley, will be resumed to-morrow evening. *

Sullivan Lodge.

The regular meeting of Sullivan Lodge, A.O.U.W., will be held this evening, in the lodge room, Spring Ridge. This lodge recently established is steadily going to the front and will soon rank with the older lodges.

Appeal Cases Decided.

The cases of Heath and Pool, appeals from the conviction of the police magistrate under the act respecting commercial travelers, came up in the County Court, the Chief Justice presiding, at noon to-day. In the Poole case the conviction was sustained and in the Heath case it was quashed. The latter decision was given on the ground that Heath did not solicit retail orders, but was selling by wholesale which did not come within the by-law.

Married at Vancouver.

Mr. A. E. McNaughton, a prominent member of the Victoria lacrosse team, was married in Vancouver on Thursday to Miss E. M. Bishop, of Montreal. The mariage ceremony was performed at the First Presbyterian manse by Rev. Mr. Maxwell, only a few intimate friends being present. Mr. J. R. Virtue and Mr. L. Davidson accompanied the bridegroom, while Mrs. Virtue and Mrs. Davidson supported the bride. The newly married couple will arrive from Vancouver this evening to make Victoria their home.

Practical Jokers Abroad.

A respected resident of Fisguard street would like to know who put tar all over his door handle and front gate. He desires a private conference with the frescoist for five minutes and will then resign in favor of the police and the ambulance corps. The misdemeanor is, so far, charged up to a band of mischievous boys who have been playing all kinds of pranks lately in that part of the city. The owner of the decorated gate and door handle think that practical jokes of that kind should receive practical recognition and reward.

He Likes Victoria.

The following appears in a recent issue of the Montreal Witness:

Mr. Frank Killam, who represented Yarmouth, N.S., in the House of Commons for a number of years, was in the city to-day, on his way home after a trip to the Pacific coast. He spent some time in British Columbia and thinks it offers the best opportunities for enterprise of any part of the Pacific coast, not excepting California and the new States further north. He was particularly pleased with Victoria and thinks there is a great future for Vancouver Island. Of Vancouver city, he said that the agricultural and other resources of the Mainland would have to be on a solid basis before it could enjoy permanent prosperity. A city cannot be built up, he said, by speculating in corner lots. In time, however, as the country became settled the city would become a big place.

"In all your travels through the west, Mr. Killam, have you seen any place you liked better than home?"

"Well, home has its associations of family, its business connections, and its many other attractions, but if I were to pull up stakes, I would go to British Columbia."

Mr. Killam is a brother of Judge Killam of Manitoba.

Move Them On.

The annoyance caused by the congregation of idle men under verandahs at street corners is never so glaringly apparent as upon days like the present. This afternoon gangs of those men monopolized the sidewalk around the corners of Yates and Government streets and seriously obstructed passenger traffic. If these men would stand aside to allow people who have business to pass it would not be so bad, but they stand stock still and refuse to budge an inch. In the case of ladies passing insulting stares are added to other insolence. Strangers who come here remark this village nuisance with surprise in view of the size of the city and its general modern aspect. Often have the newspaper men been besought to draw attention to the nuisance by merchants and others who have places of business close to these places, and as often have they done so. The pachydermatous and somnolent police force by which the provisions of the city by-laws are supposed to be carried out, seem to be more anxious to chat with friends up and down the avenue, strike fine attitudes to show off their figures when the nurse girls and the cooks are going by in their down town finery, than to do their plain duty of rushing these loafers off the busiest sidewalks in the city. There is a by-law that clearly defines their duty in this respect.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

THE OAR.

THEY ARE WORKING HARD.

As the day of the James Bay Athletic Association regatta approaches something like a scramble for the two boats takes place every afternoon between the three or four crews who go out then. To avoid this it is expected that one or two of them will go out in the mornings next week. The manner in which several of the crews are improving is very encouraging and gives promise of some good races Saturday week. Sullivan's team in particular shows fine form, and as the crew includes two champions of last year, Sullivan and Widdowson, it should loom up very close to first place on the 20th. Among the so-called "juniors" Mr. Connan's crew is putting in faithful practice and developing speed and staying power daily. The men who have disdained any practice at all so far will be out next week in their strength and crowd a month's training into six hours. The single scull events are spoken of as likely to provide capital sport. All the best senior men will enter; Sullivan, Scott and Askew. All the members of the club intend going in for something or other on the programme so that there will be no skeleton events, just enough starting to make a race. There is no prospect of the club getting a shell this season. The present club boats are giving satisfaction and are in every way suitable for getting a crew into form. Next spring the club will most probably have a pair of four oared shells for the members and will put a representative crew in training for the year's regattas.

NORTH PACIFIC ASSOCIATION.

The following officers were elected at Vancouver last night by the North Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen: President, Dr. Nunn, Portland; Vice, J. M. Buxton, Vancouver; Secretary-Treasurer, G. M. Callendar, Vancouver. The captains of the Willamette and Portland clubs will elect the Commodore, Vice Commordore and Ensign. The Executive Committee is composed of R. Jones, A. Cameron, James Bays, Victoria; Bowell and Bodwell, Vancouver; Wallbridge and Evans, Burrard Inlet; Teal and Reid, Portland; Medenhall and Milner, Willamette; C. R. Finnley, E. H. Port, Westminster. The status committee is as follows: A. St. G. Hammersley, Vancouver; Dr. Nunn, Portland; P. J. Barnun, Willamette; G. M. Callendar, Burrard Inlet. The application of the James Bay Athletic Association for affiliation with the North Pacific Association was adopted. The club must present credentials as members of the Canadian Association. The next regatta of the Association will be held at Portland on some date to be decided later.

LACROSSE.

Last evening the practice on the lacrosse field was the liveliest of the season, and the boys may be expected to give a good account of themselves to-morrow in their match with the Vancouver players. After practice, and sandwiches and coffee had been disposed of the following players were selected to represent the club in the match to-morrow: C. Blaine, goal, R. Eckhart, point; C. L. Cullin, cover point; A. Belfry, J. McLeod, W. E. Ditchburn, defence field; W. F. Blight, centre; C. Van Allen, A. Macnaughton, D. Tudhope, home field; Geo. Tite, outside home; R. Frost, inside home; W. H. Cullin, field captain. The following is given as the personnel of the Vancouver team: Goal, S. Meyers; point, A. E. Suckling; cover point, R. Cheyne; defence field, F. Miller, T. Spain, M. Peard; centre, W. Quann, home field, D. R. Smith, A. E. Nicholls, E. A. Quigley; outside home, H. McGregor; inside home, R. E. Swift; spare men, J. Quann and E. Morency; field captain, J. A. Smith. A. B. McKenzie, of Westminster, has been agreed upon as referee.

The annual tournament of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club will begin on Monday the 26th instant, at the club's courts on Belcher street. The gentlemen's doubles having been changed from a handicap to an open event. A fine gold badge upon which the names of the successive winners will be engraved from year to year. The following is the programme for the tournament:

Championship singles (open)—Winner takes a prize valued at $20, and holds the championship badge for one year.

THE WHEEL.

FOR A THREE MILE RACE.

The preliminaries for a three-mile bicyle race between Fred. Holden and B. Tiedemann are being arranged. The race will be for a handsome silver cup and will take place at the Driving Park in about three weeks. Both Holden Tiedemann have won distinction and trophies on the wheel, and both are pretty confident of victory. Tiedemann has ordered a new Raglan racer, 25 lbs. weight, while his opponent is also arranging for a wheel of the most approved style.

CRICKET.

To-morrow afternoon the following teams will meet on the Albion cricket club grounds:

A FAMILY FRACAS.

The Keelers Will Cause no More Trouble for a Couple of Months.

Kane street was last night again disturbed by a fracas at the miserable home of the Keeler family, and this morning William Keeler was up in the police court charged with assaulting his wife, Mary Ann. Mrs. Keeler stated that her husband only kicked her once or twice, because she had asked him what kept him down town and acensed him of paying too much attention to other ladies. She admitted she was jealous of her husband and stated that he was jealous, too. Alex. Hill testified that the Keelers were a nuisance to the neighborhood, and stated that he saw the prisoner kick his wife five times and then knock her down. The court gave Keeler a lecture and imposed a penalty of $10 or one month. On a charge of using obscene language, preferred by Officer McDonald, Keeler was fined $10. He will spend two months in jail.

Ah or Low Chue, charged with an aggravated assault upon Chin Hing, was remanded for a week.

A charge of assault preferred against John Martin by Jno. Singram, was dismissed, it being shown that the complainant had brought the trouble on himself.

Ah Shick, charged with the larceny of $20 from Jno Lowe, last Friday, was committed for trial at the next competent court.

They Never Tired.

Spinning yarns is a favorite pastime around the camp fires that illuminate the Arm these fine nights, and one which some of the more proficent talkers seem not to weary of. Just the other night the canoeists invited to their camp a young man of noted ability as a story-teller to meet the munchausen of their party. The fish story course was past before nine o'clock; hair-breath escapes outside of barber shops occupied an hour or so. Then there were yarns which left in the cold the "frozen pirate," and would have dissolved the petrified Indian in the Yellowstone park. The two talkers worked on tirelessly, however, till about two o'clock in the morning, when the others at the camp had to get up and gag them and then put them to bed. The competiton was declared a draw.

Fresh Strikes and Finds of Rich Ore Reported —Shipments From the Mines.

From the Miner.]

On the extension of the Blue Bird, the claim bought lately by Messrs. Garrison & Burke, Harry Ward's partners have discovered the ledge, and are now busy in uncovering and prospecting it. As if this were not enough, Harry went down on the gold belt a few days ago and struck an 18-inch ledge, which he located. Assays prove the rock to contain over 350 ounces to the ton, free milling gold. The claim is situated three miles up Bird creek from the government trail.

Jim Wardner has now all the horses on the Nakusp trail busy packing out ore. Ten tons are reported as waiting at the head of the lake for the pack trains.

Mahon has bought out W. H. Smith's interest in the claim on 4 Mile creek. A trail is being cut down to the mouth of 4-Mile creek, Fred. Hume's townsite, and ore will be shipped as soon as things are in shape for it. W. H. Smith himself means to ship ore from his claim near the government trail behind New Denver.

The best reports come from Jardine's camp in the Slocan district. Several good sales have been made and the boys are pegging away on their properties doing solid development work. The Beaver, a claim on which the most work has been done of any in Slocan, is declared by those who have seen it to be looking as well as any in the country. They are now down 60 feet on it and it shows no signs of playing out—quite the reverse.

Mr. Garrison, who is largely interested in the Tiger mine, in the Cœur d'Alene, where he has been mining since '84, passed through Nelson this week on his way to Kaslo. He expressed himself very well pleased with his property, the Blue Bird. He has been in communication with the Northern Pacific getting rates for the shipment of ore by way of Bonner's Ferry to Spokane, and fully intends to ship ore this fall.

The company working the hydraulic plant at the Pend d'Oreille are setting about business in earnest; they have six miles of wagon road already built, and have a gang of men at work on their ditch. Their sawmill machinery is on the spot and being put in place, and they have let a large contract for getting out logs.

A big strike has been made, it is rumored, between Pilot and Crawford bays, but nothing definite is yet known with regard to it. A number of men have rushed in there. A brother of Captain Gray of the Spokane, brought the first news of the strike. The first report was that the ore was gold-bearing and carried 86 ounces to the ton, but later reports have it that it is silver ore carrying gold, and that while it is low grade an enormous body of it has been struck.

Encouraging reports of steady development work come from Trail creek. Numerous influential outside capitalists have become interested in the camp and are gradually absorbing the best properties. The reason why the deal between Jim Wardner and the owners of the Le Rio claim fell through was that the smelter company, which intended to put in a mill to work the Le Roi ore, wanted the ore of the Central Star as well, and the owners of that property would not consent. The same outfit has since had an expert on the ground, and has not by any means abandoned its intention of gaining a foothold on Trail creek.

We hear that the boiler inspector has refused not only to pass, but even to examine the Ainsworth's machinery, because it was manufactured in America. The fact that the telephone wire between here and Ainsworth is not in working order has prevented us from learning whether there is any truth in this rumor or not, and the matter is so important and the report is so incredible that we wish to be certain of our facts before saying anything.

At the first annual meeting of the Nelson Electric Light Company the statement of its affairs showed that the dam, etc., and all things necessary for the laying down of the Pelton wheel and pipe had been completed at a cost of $5000. On the Edison light plant, now lying at the depot, $6500 had been paid. A new board of directors was elected in the place of the retiring trustees, composed of Messrs. J. Fred Hume, president; G. A. Bigelow, vice-president; E. Applewhaite, treasurer; A. E. Hodgins, F. Fletcher, J. W. Wilson and Harold Selous. The new board of directors will immediately issue a prospectus and actively solicit subscriptions. The total estimated cost of the undertaking will be in the neighborhood of $25,000 and by a conservative estimate will yield $750 a month during the first year's operations, or allowing $150 a month for working expenses, $600 a month clear profit—well over 25 per cent. per annum. The plant as it stands is sufficient to effectively supply the demands of a town of 2500 or 3000 inhabitants.

Captain W. Anderson, who was agent for the C. & K. Navigation Company at Bonner's Ferry, has left the country. A few weeks ago he sent for his wife and family, and on their arrival deserted them.

Messrs. Buxton, Firnan and Parker killed 71 trout, weighing 71 pounds, at No. 2 shack, in one evening after 6 o'clock.

O. D. Wheeler, of the Northern Pacific Railway, was in Nelson on Monday last, with a view to writing it up for his company.

The man Lewis, at present in jail on the charge of forging Chas. Pearson's name to an order for goods on R. E. Lemon, has been remanded for trial to the assizes.

Judge Sproat has sent a man down from New Denver for three months for carrying a gun. The man was a bad character and has received a severe lesson that gun play is not allowed in British Columbia.

On Wednesday John F. Ward and a gang of men were busy fighting the fire between the Hume addition and the Government townsite. Whether it is due to their exertions or to some other cause there is now no danger of the fire reaching the town.

The people of Ainsworth have decided that it is time they had a school house there. A public meeting unanimously agreed to memorialize the Government for the aid provided by statute, and to bear the remainder of the expense themselves. Mr. Smith, the Methodist missionary, has agreed to give his services for nine days out of each 14, and a committee has been appointed to see that a school is opened at once after the close of the usual holiday season.

KASLO.

Thompson and Whittier have struck 6 inches of ore on their extension of the Blue Bird.

An assay of $780 in silver and 72 per cent. lead was obtained from some ore from the bottom of the cut in the Lucky Jim.

Last reports from the Blue Bird state that they are now in 20 feet and the claim is showing up wonderfully well. Mr. Garrison is immensely pleased with his bargain.

On Monday evening 960 pounds of ore arrived in Kaslo by Coy's pack train from the Washington, and was forwarded in the Galena to the Spokane sampling works. Work is being pushed briskly on this property, and many tons are now ready for shipment, but the owners are waiting to see if the proposed wagon road will be built this year, in which case, of course, the freightage on ore will be very sensibly reduced.

Two more buildings are in course of erection, one on Front street and the other on Avenue. Mr. Horrocks has finished his drug store on Avenue and got his stock in.

Marcus Baldee has returned from a trip to some of the principal claims, and is more than satisfied with what he saw. He foretells a great future for Kaslo as the outlet of such a rich country.

The woods on the north and west sides of Kaslo are burning fiercely. The fire started some ten days ago, and it is now difficult to keep the trail open. The weather being so still, the smoke is a great nuisance.

Charles A. Hardy has brought down samples of probably the richest ore yet discovered. His claim is called the Grand Republic and is situated at the head of Spring Creek. It was located on the 20th of July, and the little work he has done on it shows an 18-inch lead of solid ore, apparently increasing in breadth. The ore is dry and runs very high in silver, though the exact assays have not been made known.

Ask Your Friends

Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. One has been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia, another finds it indispensable for sick headache, others report remarkable cures of scrofula, salt rheum and other blood diseases, still others will tell you that it overcomes "that tired feeling," and so on. Truly, the best advertising which Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of the army of friends it has won by its positive medicinal merit.

MAYOR'S PROPOSAL REJECTED.

The Hospital Board Rejected it After Considering it for Some Time.

A special meeting of the directors of the Jubilee Hospital was held last evening for the purpose of considering the propositions of the Mayor and aldermen and President Davies.

There was present, President Davies, in the chair, Chas. Hayward, G. Brown, H. D. Helmcken, B. Gordon, E. Crow Baker, John Braden, A. C. Flummerfelt, Jas. H. Yates, E. A. McQuade, Alex. Wilson, W. M. Chudley, Thomas Shotbolt and Geo. Byrnes.

President Davies after explaining the object of the meeting asked the board to be decisive in what they did at the meeting.

The Mayor's proposition was read first.

Mr. Hayward said that for various reasons he did not think the Mayor's proposition was desirable. In the first place if made a city institution it would lose much of its popularity, and besides it would put an additional tax on the city, which it could not stand at present.

Mr. Helmcken said that although he did not think the Mayor's proposition was desirable he thought it would be advisable to take advantage of the opportunity to get the city to help the institution. He moved the following resolution, seconded by Mr. Baker:

"That this Board having taken into consideration the proposition of the Corporation of the City of Victoria as contained in their communication of the 8th inst., is of opinion that while it would be injudicious to disturb its present management, it would respectfully urge upon the Corporation the strong necessity which exists for that honorable body to render this Board substantial aid for the maintenance and support of the institution."

Mr. A. Wilson said the Mayor and council in asking the board to surrender the hospital did not give any reasons for so doing. A well known medical man to-day begged him, as a member of the board, not to muddle the hospital with the city. The fact of the smallpox hospital being near the general hospital would injure the institution a great deal, and he thought a crematory would be worse still. He judged that the secret of the offer was to get a smallpox hospital that an injunction could not interfere with.

Mr. Byrnes suggested an addition to the resolution. He thought the Mayor should appoint one-fourth of the hospital board if the city was going to help the hospital. The city should certainly have representation on the board, as the Government was represented on account of what they did for the institution. The hospital cannot be carried on successfully in a financial point of view without help from the city. The board will expect more from the city than the Government give, and therefore should allow them representatives on the board. The revenue of the hospital has naturally decreased by the fact that the quarantine hospital was near the general hospital.

Mr. E. C. Baker thought that the board of aldermen wanted to know whether the hospital board would be in favor of making the hospital a municipal institution. He considered that the resolution proposed by Mr. Helmcken covered the ground. The details could be dealt with at a future day. At present the question was, "Was the Mayor's proposition to be accepted or rejected." He was of opinion that the present board or any future board could manage the hospital better than the Mayor and Aldermen, whose time was fully occupied with civic business. A director of a hospital he knew had a good deal to do if he took an interest in the institution, and he knew also that an Alderman had quite a little to do. He was of opinion that the proposition should be rejected.

The resolution was carried unanimously and the meeting adjourned.

THE SOCIAL EVIL.

To the Editor:—Having read a letter in last evening's Times about the growing evil of houses of ill-fame, I agree with that gentleman's views. It is now about time that something was done to prevent this spread of disreputable houses. Scarcely a business street exists in the city without some of these low haunts. It is a shame and a disgrace that a city like Victoria should tolerate such a nuisance so long when they could be put a stop to in a short time. I would like to ask what the chief of police draws his salary for, or what do we appoint a city council for? Is it not to look after the interest of the city and citizens? Then as a citizen I wish to know if it is right to allow these poor women to spend their lives in selling soul and body to gain a living, and yet there are men among us who call themselves honest—yes, honest, and Christians at that, who build houses and draw extortionate rents from these poor unfortunates. There is an old saying that the receiver is as bad as the thief. I guess that the same maxim could be applied to these landlords. I wonder if these money grabbers ever think when they eat the necessaries of life where the money comes from that helps to pay for it. They are the parties I would like to see made an example of. On the other hand, I believe in strong measures being taken to suppress these low women. It is a shame and disgrace to the chief of police and city council that such a nuisance should exist so long. Now I don't believe in writing up an evil without also giving a remedy also. The same evil existed in a city—I will give the name as Dery. There was a new chief of police appointed who took it in hand to stop this degraded traffic, and he succeeded in a short time in doing it. He gave orders to his men to arrest every one of them at different times, and not only them but every one that came and went to these houses. As soon as these women found out that the chief of police was determined to make an example of them, the city soon got clear of them. I believe that if some stringent measures, such as the ones I mentioned, were put in practice this low business for women in the city of Victoria would soon be blotted out.

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents. *

Progressive Commerce.

Spot cash is the order of the day. We want money to carry on our large and increasing business. To get this money we have reduced prices for the vast stock we hold to an alarming extent. The immense reductions made would form a good capital for a small firm. Thirty to fifty per cent. discount on $150,000 worth of stock is one of the boldest things attempted yet in the province. Yet we are doing it for these reasons: We are buying enormously, paying promptly for our goods, wish to increase our connection and build up the biggest trade in B. C. Our sale commenced on Monday, and is forging ahead. Ladies, you want a bedroom, parlor, or drawing room suite, or one of our lovely sideboards, or a comfortable, artistic chair, or a bright and pretty carpet, or many things in crockery, glassware, lamps and cutlery. Sehl-Hastie-Erskine, 66 and 68 Government street, will sell them to you at far less than auction prices. *

The Quebec Government has decided to call the Legislature together in November. The session will in all probability be stormy, principally on account of the measures of taxation which have created much unusual discontent all over the province.

Action has been entered against M. C. Cameron, ex-M.P., for $5000 damages, for alleged false arrest, imprisonment and malicious prosecution by Laura Gordon, arrested recently at Mr. Cameron's instance, on a charge of conspiracy in connection with charges of immorality brought against the latter.

The residence of J. B. Mitchell, manager of the Dominion Organ Company, Bowmanville, was entered at an early hour Thursday morning by scoundrels, who started a fire in the sitting room and another in the dining room. Mitchell discovered the fires in time to prevent damage being done. The miscreants also set fire to the stable and outbuildings, which were destroyed.

Early Thursday morning an accident occurred in the Lachine canal by which three men lost their lives. The tug Paul was moored in the canal and everything appeared all right, when the men on board retired. During the night a leak occurred in some unaccountable manner, and the tug sank. There were four men asleep in their berths at the time, and three were drowned. The fourth made his escape.

Percy Lawless, a well-known young lawyer of Toronto, was discovered by his wife living in a cottage at Balmy Beach with Lottie Irving, 22 years old, who was his pretty typewriter, and went under the name of Mrs. Lawless. He told his wife, when he went to the cottage, that business took him out of the city. Finally, Lottie's mother traced the girl, and told the lawyer's wife. Mrs. Lawless went to the house and smashed the windows with a board. When she got in she found that the girl had escaped from the second story window, and hid in the woods.

The Manitoba department of agriculture has issued a crop bulletin, which places the total yield of wheat this year at a little less than 20,000,000 bushels. Oats will be about 15,000,000 bushels, and barley slightly over 3,000,000. The average yield of wheat per acre is estimated at twenty-two bushels; oats, thirty-two; barley, thirty-two. These averages are below those of last year. The wheat of last year was twenty-seven; oats, forty-four; barley, thirty-five. The total area under wheat this year is less than last, so that the total quantity of wheat raised in the province this year will be about 5,000,000 bushels less than last year. The sample, however, will be excellent. The weather up to the present and for the past six weeks has been most favorable, so that harvesting will be very little later than usual. Barley cutting has already commenced, and wheat and oat cutting will be general next week in the western part of the province, and a week later in the eastern portion. The next few weeks will be an anxious time for the people of the country, as the prosperity of all depends on the freedom from frost for four weeks yet. The vegetable crop is uniformly excellent and has not suffered from any cause. The hay crop is abundant and the quality good. About 150,000 acres of prairie have been broken for the crop next year.

Cable Notes.

ROME, Aug. 11.—Signor Grimaldi, minister of finance, plans a complete reform of the import duties, and hopes thereby to increase revenues by about one million lire. Contrary to all expectations, General Pelloux, minister of war, not only fails to realize the hopes of retrenchment indulged in by the Irridentists, but has completed a plan for the increase of the territorial army by 10 cavalry regiments. This plan has been approved by the King, whose opposition to any reduction of the army was confirmed during the conference with the Emperor William at Potsdam.

Mgr. Galimberti, the Papal Nuncio at Vienna, who is about to be recalled, will not be promoted to the cardinalate. The Nuncio is supposed to have been the cause of the ill-feeling which has characterized recent relations between Austria and the Vatican, and has fallen into disfavor.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—In the Commons to-day Right Hon. Sir James Lowther stated, in reply to a question, that the document torn up by Sir Charles Euan Smith, British Minister at Morocco, in presence of the Sultan, was the draft of a treaty which the Sultan desired to have signed.

The Guillotine of the Reign of Terror.

Under the Empire and Restoration the guillotine was permanently stationed in the Place de Greve and executed annually between thirty and forty persons. During the reign of Louis Philippe the guillotine was transferred to the Barriere St. Jacques, and under the Second Empire to the Place de la Roquette, where it remains. During the Commune the old guillotine was burned by the people, and the present instrument is quite new. Sanson, who was the public executioner throughout the Reign of Terror, sold the original guillotine to Curtius for £1,000, and he in turn disposed of it for a larger sum to his niece, Mme. Tussand.—London Saturday Review.

WATT'S THE MATTER?

TO THE EDITOR:—The notice to which I referred, and which appears in each of the city papers, says, "All persons leaving the city by train or boat will have to, etc., or be treated as suspects." Not a word appears about Dr. Watt's discretionary power. Now, this mild-looking medical inspector informs me, with many others, that the object of vaccinating persons leaving the city is "to prevent an outbreak of smallpox in other portions of the province." Of course, I shall not presume to pit myself against Dr. Watt on this point. But has he the assurance to tell us that Drs. Jack, Ferguson, Mills, Kelly, Wilson, Thomas, Langis and McGuigan, all of Vancouver, are cranks and fools on the matter of vaccination? Yet these gentlemen made affidavits that vaccination was no protection against bringing smallpox to Vancouver from Victoria, (TIMES, July 26). Will Dr. Watt stake the shred of experience he has that cowpoxing will do what he says it will? I shall be glad to hear his reply. That it will, and does, produce scrofula, jaundice, skin eruptions and syphilis I can prove both by M. D's. in Victoria and others out of it. Yes, I am an anti-vaccinator and for good reasons, too, and I have the consolation of knowing that I am not in such a minority in Victoria as I was when some of the doctors of this city scared people into their boom. Hundreds of our citizens to-day are declaring they will have no more vaccination, come weal or woe. Thanks to the cowpoxers.

As I surmised, sir, this eminent bloodpoisoner knows nothing of doctors who ornamented their profession long before he became medical health officer of Victoria. However, he need not despair, if he will spend a few hours over Dr. Creighton's article on vaccination in the 9th edition of the Encyclopædia Britannica. I wonder if that authority can be prevented in any way from a sneer?

This savior of the race says: "Justice, legal and moral, interposes," and says, "Here we compel you to be vaccinated." Go slowly, friend, or you will put us under an everlasting obligation.

About the year 1883 the yacht Mignonette sailed from England for Australia, but she foundered in mid-ocean. The crew, in a small boat, were exposed to terrible privations and eventually drew lots to decide which should be sacrificed to give the others something to eat. The lot fell on the boy, whose blood the others drank, and they continued to live on his body till they were picked up. They were tried in Cornwall, England, and the learned judge, whose painful duty it was to hear the case, ruled that "A" had no right to interfere with the life of "B," even though it could be shown that "B's" existence was a menace to "A's." His lordship found a precedent in the case of a ship which foundered on the east coast of this continent. The only survivor related how the ship went down, and that he and a comrade swam for a spar which would support one, but not two. They agreed upon a plan whereby one was to drop off and leave the other in possession of the spar. The judge found himself compelled to give the survivor a term of imprisonment. In the case of the Mignonette, the crew were sent to jail.

Will Dr. Watt say no deaths occur from vaccination? I trow not. I not only question any man's right to poison me, but, I will do my utmost to restrain him from doing so.

Dr. Watt says my plea to him was that the operation would hurt me. Sir, that is an impudent untruth and he knows it. As to the necessity of my learning something more about liberty and justice, I merely say "physician heal thyself." The kindliest recommendation is noted, but I assure Dr. Watt, medical inspector, I have no intention of "learning a little common sense." The effects of such a course on himself are painfully evident.
